A Fascinating Illustrated Talk By
Jeff Grosvenor

Wednesday 5th April 2023

7:30pm (doors open 7:00pm)

The discovery of the Newport Medieval Ship is internationally acclaimed as an extremely significant find of a fifteenth century vessel – some say it's '...probably more important than the Mary Rose'. The archaeological project, since its discovery, has been meticulous and is also seen as a world leading and innovative project that has used the most advanced recording techniques.

Jeff Grosvenor has been a volunteer guide and committee member at the Newport Medieval Ship Centre for the last four years, his talk will provide an insight into the project since the ship's discovery and show what the future holds for Newport's unique maritime exhibit.
