Show Your Support for Our Cause – Become a Member Today

Many visitors to our unique mountain, Twmbarlwm, are filled with admiration for its history, its beauty, the landscape and the views. But they are also often horrified by the apparent neglect and abuse by others who just don't care for their environment. The Twmbarlwm Society is trying to change all that, but to do so we need funds, volunteers and expertise – but most of all your straight-forward support – you don't have to attend all our events or lend a hand (but it would be good). If we can show, through our strength of numbers, that many people really do care then we gain a stronger voice in trying to achieve our aims - become a member today, show that you care!
